I. Register and Index of Beneficial Owners

The Register and Index of beneficial Owners, maintained by a Depository under Section 11 of the Depositories Act shall be deemed to be the Register and Index of Members and Security holders as the case may be for the purposes of these Articles.

J. Intimation to Depository :

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Act or these Articles, where securities are dealt with a Depository, the Company shall intimate the details of allotment of securities thereof to the Depository immediately on allotment of such securities.

K. Stamp duty on securities hold In dematerialised form :

No stamp duty would be payable on shares and securities held in dematerialised form in any medium as may be permitted by law including any form of electronic medium.

L. Applicability of the Depositories Act :

In case of transfer of shares, debentures and other marketable securities, where the Company has not issued any certificate and where such shares, debentures or securities are being held in an electronic and fungible form in a Depository, the provisions of the Depositories Act, 1996 shall apply.

M. Company to recognise the rights of Registered Holders as also the Beneficial Owners in the Records of the Depository :

Save as herein otherwise provided, the Company shall be entitled to treat the person whose name appears on the Register of Members as the holder of any share, as also the beneficial Owner of the shares in records of the Depository as the absolute owner thereof as regards receipt of dividends or bonus or service of notices and all or any other matters connected with the Company, and accordingly, the Company shall not, except as ordered by a Court of competent jurisdiction or as by law required, be bound to recognise any benami trust or equity or equitable, contingent or other claim to or interest in such share on the part of no other person whether or not it shall have express or implied notice thereof.

32. No call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal amount of a share, be made payable at less than one month from the payment of the last preceding call. Not less than fourteen days notice of any call shall be given specifying the time and place of payment and the person or persons to whom such call shall be paid. Provided that, before the time for payment of such call, the Directors may, by notice in writing to the members, revoke the same or extend the time payment thereof.

Restriction on power to make calls and notice

33. It by the terms of issue of any share or otherwise any amount is made payable at any fixed time or by instalments at fixed times, whether on account of the nominal amount of the share or by way of premium every such amount of instalment shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Board and of which due notice has been given and all the provisions herein contained in respect of call, forfeiture or otherwise shall relate to such amount or instalment accordingly.

When amount payable

34. If the sum payable in respect of any call or instalment be not paid on or before the day appointed for payment, the holder for the time being of the shares in respect of which the call shall have been made, or the instalment shall be due, shall pay interest for the same at the rate of 12 percent per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment or at such other rate as the Directors may determine. The Directors may in their absolute discretion waive the payment of interest, wholly, or in part in the case of any person liable to pay such call or instalment.

When interest call or instalment payable

35. Subject to the provisions of the law of Evidence and procedure on the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought by the Company against any share holder or his representatives to recover any debt or money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his shares, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the defendant is or was, when the claim rose on the register of the Company as a holder or one of the holders, of the number of shares in respect of which such claims made, and the amount claimed is not entered as paid in the books of the company and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made any call nor that a quorum of Directors was present at the Board at which any call was made nor that the meeting at which any call was made was duly convened or constituted, nor any other matter whatsoever, but the proof the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

Evidence in action for call

Payment of calls in advance

36. The Board may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, and either the money or money's worth, all or any part of money due upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called for and upon the money so paid or satisfied in advance, or so much thereof as from time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance has been made, the Company may pay interest at such rate as determined by the Board from time to time, unless the Company In General Meeting shall otherwise direct. The Directors may, at any time repay the amount so advanced upon giving to such member one month's notice in writing. The member shall not, however, be entitled to any voting rights or dividend in respect of the moneys so paid by him until the same would, but for such payment become presently payable.

Voting rights when calls in arrear

37. No member shall be entitled to exercise any voting rights either personally or by proxy at any meeting of the Company in respect of any share registered in his name on which any calls or other sums presently payable by him have not been paid or in regard to which the Company has, and has exercised any right of lien.

Reservation of calls

38. A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board.

Directors may extend time for payment of a call

39. The Directors may, from time to time, at their discretion extend the time fixed for the payment of any call and may extend such time as to all or any of the members who on account of residence at a distance or some other cause, may be seemed fairly entitled to such extension, but no member shall, as a matter of right, be entitled to such extension (save as a matter of grace and favour).

Every member to pay the proportion of the capital represented by the share

40. Every member, his executors or administrators shall pay to the Company the proportion of the Capital represented by his share or shares which may, for the time being remain unpaid thereon in such amount at such time or times and in such manner as the Directors shall, from time to time in accordance with the Comapny's regulations, require or fix for the payment thereof.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

41. If a member fails to pay any sum payable in respect of calls or any instalment of a call on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the said call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such member requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid together with any interest may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment. Notice for payment of call or instalment
42. The notice aforesaid shall name a further day, not being earlier than the expiry of fourteen days from the date of service of notice, on or before which the payment required by the notice, is to be made and the place at which such call or instalment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall state that in the event of non-payment on or before the date so named, the shares in respect of which such call or instalment was payable shall be liable to be forfeited. Mode of notice
43. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with any shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment of calls or instalment, interest and expenses due in respect has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board of that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture. Forfeiture of shares
44. When any share shall have been so forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be given to the member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture and an entry of the forfeiture with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register of Member but no forfeiture shall in any manner be invalidated by occasion or failure to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid. Notice of forfeiture
45. Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Board thinks fit. Forfeited shares to become property of the Company
46. The Board may at any time before any share so forfeited shall have been sold, reallocated or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture thereof upon such conditions as it thinks fit. Board may annul forfeiture
47. (i) A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of forfeited share but shall notwithstanding forfeiture remain liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, interest and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of forfeiture, together with interest thereon from the time for forfeiture until payment thereof without any deduction or allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture. Arrears to be paid notwithstanding forfeiture

- (ii) The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in and also of claims and demand against the Company in respect of the shares and all other rights incidental to the share except any such of those rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.

Evidence of forfeiture

48. Subject to the provisions of the law of Evidence and Procedure, a duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director of the Company, and that certain shares in the Company have been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts herein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. Such declaration and the receipt of the Company for the consideration, if any given for the shares on the sale or disposition thereof shall constitute a good title to such shares and the person to whom the shares are sold shall be registered as the holder of such shares and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to such shares be effected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture, sale or disposition.

Forfeiture provisions to apply to non-payment in terms of issue

49. The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue a share become payable at a fixed time whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same has been payable by virtue of call duly made and notified.

Power to issue non-certificate

50. When any shares under the powers on that behalf being contained are sold by the Directors and the certificate thereof has not been delivered to that Company by the former holder of the said shares, the Directors may issue a new certificate for such shares distinguishing it in such manner as they may think fit from the certificate not so delivered.

Partial payment of any indulgence show not to preclude forfeiture

51. Neither the receipt by the Company of a portion of any money which shall from time to time, be due from any member to the Company in respect of his share, either by way of principal or interest, nor any indulgence granted by the Company in respect of the payment of any such money shall preclude the Directors from thereafter proceeding to enforce a forfeiture of such share as provided in these regulations for non-payment of the whole or any balance due in respect of the shares.

COMPANY'S LIEN ON SHARES

Company's lien of shares

52. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called, or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and on all shares (not being fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of a single person for all moneys payable by him or his estate to the company, provided that the Board of Directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this clause. The Company's lien, if any, extend to all dividend declared from time to time in respect to such shares. Unless otherwise agreed the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such shares.

53. For the purpose of enforcing such lien the Board may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as it thinks fit, but no sale be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such member his executor or administrator, committee, curator, bonis or other legal representative as the case may be, and default shall have been made by him or them in payment of the sum payable as aforesaid in respect of such for fourteen days after the date of such notice. Endorsement of lien by sales
54. The net proceeds of any such sale shall be received by Company and after payment of the cost of such sale, be applied in or towards payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable and the residue, if any, shall subject to like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale, be paid to the person entitled to the share at the date of the sale. Application of proceeds of sales
55. Upon any sale after forfeiture or surrender or enforcing a lien in purported exercise of the powers herein before conferred, the Board may appoint some person to execute an instrument of transfer the share sold and cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the Register in respect of share sold, and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings, nor to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered into the Register in respect of such share the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person on any ground whatsoever, and the remedy of any person aggrieved by such sale shall be in damages only against the Company exclusively. Validity of sales in exercise of lien and after forfeiture
56. Where any share has been sold by the Board pursuant to these Articles and the certificate in respect thereof has not been delivered to the Company by the former holder of such share the Board may issue a new certificate for such share, distinguishing it in such manner as it may think fit from the certificate so delivered wherein any such case the certificate in respect of the share forfeited and/or sold is not delivered and new certificate for such share has been issued, the original certificate shall be treated as cancelled and no claim or title based on such certificate shall be binding on the Company. Board may issue new certificates
